

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF KING

STATE OF WASHINGTON,

Plaintiff

vs.

Defendant

NO.
CCN NO.

Conditions of Conduct for Persons
SENTENCED by the King County Superior
Court into Work Education Release
(WER)

SENTENCED OFFENDERS ONLY

The following are court imposed conditions of conduct for participation in King County's Work/Education Release (WER) Program. Compliance with these conditions of conduct shall be monitored by the King County Department of Adult and Juvenile Detention (DAJD), Community Corrections Division, as specified herein by the court. Your continued participation in WER is subject to strict compliance with the following:

Sentenced offenders who violate their WER Conditions of Conduct Order shall be subject to the graduated sanction violation process. The sanction will be determined by the WER sanctioning grid according the severity level of the violation and the number of violations committed. The range of possible sanctions include administrative sanctions delivered by program staff up to a limited stay of 48 hours in jail to be administered immediately without a hearing. If the violation you commit results in a sanction that falls outside of the sanctioning grid, you will be immediately removed from the Community Corrections Program and graduated sanctions violation process and placed in secure detention to await a hearing. If you request a hearing to contest a violation or sanction, you will be removed from the Community Corrections Program and graduated sanctions violation process and placed in secure detention until the hearing occurs.

1. You shall commit no crimes. DAJD shall monitor bookings into the King County Correctional Facility and the Maleng Regional Justice Center for violations of any local, state, federal law or court order. Any booking into the King County Correctional Facility or the Maleng Regional Justice Center resulting in a new criminal charge being filed after the date of this order will result in your removal from WER and incarceration into secure detention.
2. You shall not use controlled substances without a valid prescription and shall not consume alcohol beginning from the date of this order. Any use of controlled substances, other than as prescribed by a physician, will be considered a violation. You will submit to urinalysis testing as ordered, including a baseline urinalysis to determine the levels of THC within 5 days of beginning participation in WER and if the THC level does not decrease in your next urinalysis test, this will be considered a violation. DAJD shall monitor compliance with this condition by random urinalysis and/or breathalyzer testing []1 []2 times every 30 days. If you violate this condition or fail to submit to testing on demand you will be subject to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.

3. You shall attend all court ordered therapy and treatment. You must provide a Release of Information to DAJD to verify your compliance. DAJD shall contact the therapy and treatment providers []1 []2 times every 30 days to verify compliance. If you violate this condition you will be subject to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.
4. You shall attend work or school. You must provide DAJD with a time sheet to be completed upon arrival and departure by a representative at your work or school. You must present this time sheet to DAJD staff upon return to the WER facility. Also, DAJD shall monitor compliance with this condition by contacting the employer or school []1 []2 times every 30 days. If you violate this condition you will be subject to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.
5. You must obtain pre-approval to work overtime and you must be on time when you report back to the facility. Three written warnings in a 30-day period for being less than 60 minutes late or one incident of being 60 minutes late or more will subject you to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.
6. You must arrange for the employer to directly mail your wages to the WER facility. Employer managed direct deposit may be exempt from mailing provided it is authorized by DAJD staff. Failure to abide by this condition will subject you to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.
7. You shall not forge a document or provide false information to DAJD staff. Such activity if actually known to DAJD will subject you to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.

DONE IN OPEN COURT this _____ day of _____, 20_____.

JUDGE

I, _____, have read, or have had read to me, the above court ordered conditions of conduct for participation in the Work/Education Release Program monitored by the King County Department of Adult and Juvenile Detention. I understand what is required of me for participation in this program and agree to abide by the conditions as stated herein. I have also been provided with the graduated sanctions violation process grid. I understand what is required of me and agree to abide by the conditions as stated herein. I also understand that it is my sole responsibility to comply with these conditions of conduct and that if I fail to comply with any of the conditions I will be subject to a graduated sanctions violation process.

Signature of Defendant _____ Date _____

I am a certified interpreter or have been found otherwise qualified by the court to interpret in the _____ language, which the defendant understands, and I have translated the WER Conditions of Conduct Order for the defendant from English into that language.

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Interpreter Signature: _____ Date _____